Introduction

Located in the heart of Greenwich Peninsula, Magazine London offers an exclusive riverside location for summer parties. Guests can enjoy summer celebrations with a cocktail in hand, immersed by panoramic views of Canary Wharf cityscape - guaranteed to leave a lasting impression. As day turns to night and the sun sets behind the city, guests can indulge in a delicious BBQ or bowl food reception, provided by Moving Venue Caterers.

Why rely on the British summer? The venue offers both indoor and outdoor space to provide a perfect solution for weatherproofing your summer party.

Easily accessible via tube, bus, boat or even bike - it's just a few minutes walk from North Greenwich underground station and nine minutes from the pier. The venue has excellent transport links from the West End, London Bridge and Canary Wharf.

Customer Journey

On arrival into Space 1, guests are instantly met with an impressive floor-to-ceiling glass wall, framing an uninterrupted city backdrop and providing an abundance of daylight. Guests can continue celebrations and bask in the summer sunshine by stepping outside onto The Terrace and into The Yard, an outdoor space overlooking the River Thames. Once the skyline is illuminated by the city lights, guests can retreat inside to explore the vast space that Magazine London has on offer.

Space 2 features an eight metre high ceiling, polished concrete floors and a state-of-the-art lighting and sound rig, available to clients for the ultimate after-party. The venue also features an in-house stage, ideal for live entertainment, awards or keynote speakers. The space could also be adapted for a daytime conference, with screen bolt-on packages available by Vibration Design and Production.

As a blank canvas, Magazine London provides complete control in designing a non-formulaic and entirely bespoke event, allowing for flexible branding and theming opportunities for drinks receptions, team building days, evening dinners or festival-style summer parties.
